Luke 19:11-27

Literal Translation

Introduction

- 11) Now while they were hearing these things, when He added to them He spoke a parable, because He was near Jerusalem, and they thought that the kingdom of God is about to appear immediately.

- 12) Therefore He said, “a certain well-born man traveled into a distant country, to receive a kingdom for himself, and to return.

Luke 19:11-27

Literal Translation (continued)

- 13) “And when he called his own ten slaves, he gave to them ten minas, and said to them, ‘Do business until I come.’
- 14) “But his citizens were hating, and sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘we do not desire this one to reign over us.’
- 15) “And it happened when he returned after he had received the kingdom, that he said for those slaves to be called to him, to whom he gave the silver, in order that he might know who had gained what.

Luke 19:11-27

16) “And when the first one came along, saying, ‘Lord, your mina gained ten minas.’

17) “And he said to him, ‘Well done, good slave; because you became faithful in the least thing, be having authority over ten cities.’

18) “And the second one came, saying, ‘Lord, your mina made five minas.’

Luke 19:11-27

- 19) “And he also said to this one, ‘And you yourself become over five cities.’
- 20) “And another one came, saying, ‘Lord, look, your mina which I was holding, storing up in a cloth;
- 21) ‘for I was fearful of you, because you are a harsh man; taking up what you did not lay down, and reaping what you did not sow.’

Luke 19:11-27

Literal Translation (continued)

- 22) “And he says to him, ‘From out of your mouth I will judge you, evil slave. You knew that I myself am a harsh man, taking up what I did not lay down, and reaping what I did not sow;
- 23) ‘and for what reason did you not give my silver upon the bank, and when I myself came I would have collected it with interest.’
- 24) “And to the ones who had been standing by he said, ‘Remove the mina from him, and give it to the one having ten minas.’

Luke 19:11-27

Literal Translation (continued)

- 25) “And they said to him, Lord, he has ten minas.’
- 26) “For I say to you, that to everyone having it will be given; and from the one not having, even what he has will be removed from him.
- 27) “Nevertheless those enemies of mine, the ones who had not desired me to reign over them, bring here and execute them before me.”
