John 9:1-12

Literal Translation (continued)

2) And His disciples asked Him saying, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he should be born blind?"

3) Jesus answered, "Neither this man sinned nor his parents but in order that the works of God might be manifest in him.

4) "It is necessary that I should work the works of the One having sent Me while it is day; night is coming, when no one is able to work.

5) "Whenever I might be in the world, I am the light of the world."

6) After having said these things, He spit on the ground, and made clay out of the saliva, and smeared the clay upon the eyes of the blind man;

7) and He said to him, "Go, wash into the pool of Siloam, which is being interpreted "Sent." Therefore He went and washed and came seeing.

8) Therefore the neighbors and the ones observing him formerly that he was blind, were saying, "Is not this man the one sitting and begging?"

9) Others were saying, "That this man is he;" but others, "he is like him." That one was saying that, "I am."

10) Therefore they were saying to him, "How were your eyes opened?"

Literal Translation (continued)

11) That one answered and said, "A man being called Jesus made clay and smeared it upon my eyes, and said to me, 'Go into the pool of Siloam and wash,' and after having gone and having washed I received sight."

12) And they said to him, "Where is that man?" He says, "I do not know."
