II Corinthians 1:12

For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

II Corinthians 10:4

The Explanation

Romans 6:14 says, "For sin shall not have dominion over you, you are not under law but under grace."

It does not say, "it shouldn't rule" but, "it doesn't rule"

Through the death of Christ, we have been separated from the sin principle and it is impossible to continue with the lifestyle of sin any longer.

Here Paul expresses the state of conflict in a Christian's mind.
It lines up with the experience of Christians, not sinners.

This text describes the experience of all Christians:

the habitual, fixed inclination and desire of their mind is to serve God and do right;

also the habitual, fixed inclination and desire of their mind is against sin, though sin is still active in their flesh.
